

Sarah Werner, PA-C

Sarah is a 2013 graduate from Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine. She completed a physician assistant residency in neonatology at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia where she now works in the neonatal and infant intensive care unit. Her professional interests include advancing care of the extremely preterm infant. She lives in the suburbs of Philadelphia Pennsylvania and enjoys being outside, hiking and spending time with her family.